Fire. Our village was alarmed by the cry of fire on Tuesday morning last, at about 7 o'clock. It proved to be the wooden building occupied by Mr. Henry and John Rooth as a Dry Goods and Grocery stores, which was suppliedly consumed. The fire which was completely consumed. The fire which was completely consumed. The fire had made such progress before it was discovered and spread so rapidly, that all efforts to save the building were unavailing. The building adjoining, which was also of wood and situated within a few feet, was saved by the great exertions of our citizens and the providential circumstance of the roof being covered with snow. It was on fire several covered with snow. It was on fire several times, but by the prompt and vigorous exer-tions of the Engire Companies the flames were soon extinguished.

The loss falls heavy upon Mr. Rooth who had a large and excellent assortment of goods, and but very little comparatively was saved. No insurance.

The Cherokees.-The Cherokee Council, Intely held at Red Clay, Tennessee, terminated in a downright quarrel between the parties for and against emigration. An attempt was made by the former to expel Ridge and Coody, the leaders of the emigrating party, from the Council. The attempt failed, but they resigned their places, and intend to emigrate. It is said in the Georgia reports that igrate. It is said in the Georgia papers, that half the tribe will accompany them. A new delegation to Washington was appointed, at the head of which were Ross and McKay.

The Charleston Mercury states, on the authority of a letter from the seat of disturbance in Alabama, that Lieut. Manning, of the U. S. Army, who commanded the detachment of soldiers by whom Owens was shot, has given bond for his appearance at Court; and that the soldier who committed the act has deserted and fled the country.

Important. We learn by a passenger arrived in the schr. Fornax, on Saturday, from Jamaica, that the Governor of the Island had dissolved the Provincial Legislature in consequence of their refusal to pass the necessary laws to carry into effect the act of the British Parliament for the emancipation of the slaves. The Governor had sent munitions of war, and provisions in vessels of war, from Port Royal to the different ports in the Island, anticipating a revolt on the part of the negroes. He had expressed to the Assembly his determination to rest on the security of the troops of the line, which 80 79 the Assembly his determination to rest on the security of the troops of the line, which had been reinforced, and on one portion of the militia, alluding, of course, to the whites.
